LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(b.) To prospect for, survey, explore, open, work, develop, and maintain lands, territories, locations, rights, and facilities belonging to or acquired by the Company, and for these or any other purposes to equip and employ expeditions and commissions, explorers, experts, and others:

(c.) To manufacture into marketable commodities, or otherwise, and to dispose of all residual or by-products resulting from any refining or other operations in which the Company may be engaged:

(d.) To purchase, construct, build, operate, maintain, lay down, take on lease, or acquire by grant or otherwise, and to own, hold, control, lease, exchange, sell, charter, hire, or otherwise acquire and dispose of all oil, gas, and other wells, shafts, pits, tunnels, drilling outfits, machinery, tools, and equipment, buildings, gasometers, refineries, mills, factories, manufactories, laboratories, testing-rooms, furnaces, foundries, workshops, sale and machine shops, storage depots and plants, ice-houses, smelters, reduction and concentration works, hydraulic, electrical, chemical, and other works, sawmills, refrigerators, refrigerator and other cars, engines, sidings, tracks, bridges, spurs, piers, roads, wharves, docks, slips, and works for the improvement of navigation, and all structures, appliances, and equipment for the handling of traffic and shipments, terminal and shipping facilities and stations of all kinds, tugs, boats, barges, scows, and ships of every description, whether driven by steam, oil, or other motive power, aeroplanes and other aircraft, aerodromes and stations of all kinds, coke-ovens, distillers, absorption machinery and plants, tanks, converters, conveyers, compressors, accumulators, engines, rolling stock, plant, implements, tools and apparatus, tanks, storage, pumping stations and plants, pipe-lines, cables, wires, tools, patterns of all kinds, artesian wells, stock-in-trade, horses, cattle, and live stock of all kinds, and such other works, buildings, plant, machinery, apparatus, appliances, properties, chattels, and conveniences as may be, directly or indirectly, necessary for all or any of the purposes or businesses or objects of the Company, or the full enjoyment, development, and use thereof, and to carry on any business or businesses that may be necessary or requisite for the purpose of exercising all or any of the rights or powers herein mentioned:

(e.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, to own, control, and hold water powers, gas, oil, and all other powers and substances necessary and requisite for the development and production of light, heat, and power, and all franchises, appurtenances, and privileges appertaining thereto or necessary for the full exercise and enjoyment thereof, and to store, dam, manufacture, utilize, and distribute same for the purposes of the Company, and to supply, contract for, and furnish, or otherwise dispose thereof to public and private consumers, and to build, construct, and maintain flumes, viaducts, reservoirs, dams, culverts, subways, aqueducts, waterworks, gas and sewer systems, irrigation-works, power plants, power stations, hydraulic works, transmission-lines, and all other works, buildings, equipment, machinery, appliances, and devices, and all other materials, substances, and means for the development, production, supply, and use of light, heat, and power; provided always that the powers granted under this clause, in so far as those relate to the supply of light, heat, and power beyond the Company's own lands and premises, shall be subject to all Dominion, Provincial, and municipal laws and regulations in that behalf, and shall be exercised accordingly:

(f.) To carry on the business of general contractors, and to enter into contracts for, construct, execute, own, and carry on all description of works and operations:

(g.) To promote, support, and obtain any Act of Parliament, charter, provisional or other orders, concessions or grants from Government or any other corporation or persons to carry into effect any of the objects of the Company, or for effecting any modification in the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any bills, orders, proceedings, or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company:

(h.) To establish, form, promote, or assist in paying the costs of and incidental or preliminary to the formation or establishment of any company or undertaking formed with objects altogether or in part similar to the objects for which the Company is established or for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, holding, working, or otherwise dealing with all or any of the property of the Company, or in which the Company is interested and with whom the Company may or may not amalgamate, and to make or concur or assist in making all payments and financial arrangements in relation thereto, and to undertake, subscribe for, purchase, hold, sell, or dispose of shares, stocks, obligations, debentures, or securities in any such Company, and to guarantee or assist in the guarantee of the payment of any dividends or interest on the stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, or securities of any such Company, and to pay any brokerage, indemnities, or other charges and legal or other expenses incidental thereto:

(i.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To carry on all kinds of exploration business, and, in particular, to search for, prospect, examine, and explore mines and ground supposed to contain minerals, and to search for and obtain information in regard to mines, mining claims, and mining districts and localities:

(k.) Upon an issue of shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company, to employ brokers, commission agents, and underwriters, and to provide for the remuneration of such persons for their services by payment in cash or by the issue of shares, debentures, or other securities of the Company, or by the granting of options to take the same, or in any other manner.
